

We do what's right throughout Scotland

As well as providing good, sound advice for our clients, we play an active role in supporting the communities we serve. Either by providing jobs, giving something back through our charitable work or providing local sponsorships.

We don't do this because we have to; we do it because it's the right thing to do

Thorntons

A warm welcome to Thorntons

Doing
what's right for over 150 years

When long-established companies such as Pagan Osborne close their doors it's naturally met with sadness.

However, by bringing Pagan Osborne's people into the Thorntons fold and supporting them, we're aiming to deliver a continuity of the same great service that you've been used to.

Of course, you may take this opportunity to look at other legal and property service options. If this is the case, then we'll do all we can to help.

Because at Thorntons we believe in doing what's right for you.

Thorntons' roots can be traced back to 1857. Over the generations, Thorntons has grown to become one of Scotland's largest and most successful full service legal and property firms.

That success is built on investment in our services and people: resulting in high quality advice, coupled with exceptional client care. By taking time to understand our clients' specific needs we're able to deliver solutions for the long term.

Our offices in St Andrews, Cupar, Anstruther and Edinburgh are perfectly located to meet the needs of former Pagan Osborne clients. Thorntons also has offices in Arbroath, Forfar, Kirkcaldy, Montrose, Perth and Dundee should you require our services in these locations.

So you could say, business as usual; but we'd like to do better than that.

In the main, the same person will be giving you the same great advice. However, there will now be a broader range of services to draw upon. Our proven, joined up approach, means we'll be able to offer you fully comprehensive solutions.

You can trust Thorntons to deliver advice that's right for you
