Caird Travelling Music Scholarships are awarded to applicants who are travelling away from their home town to a place of study either in the UK or abroad. The Scholarships are generally for post graduate levels of study for those of outstanding musical ability; or for under graduate studies abroad for those of exceptional talent.

Awards of up to £3,500 can be made. The amount to be awarded is determined mainly in relation to the centre of study chosen and the nature of the work contemplated or the experience to be acquired. Applications to travel abroad will be favourably considered. Please see the Explanatory Memorandum for fuller details of the Scholarships.

The Administrative Note, Application Form and Referee Report Form required to make an application are available below or from Thorntons the Administrators of the Trust. All Applications must be lodged with the Administrators no later than 31 January, 2025. It is important for applicants to ensure that their applications, etc. are lodged as far in advance of that date as is possible as no late Applications will be accepted.

Applicants must have Scottish Nationality, i.e. born in Scotland or one parent or grandparent born in Scotland and evidence of this must be produced to the Administrators.

Auditions will be held in Glasgow and in addition there will be a limited number of auditions held in London but only for those applicants who cannot attend Glasgow.

All applicants must state in their covering letter with their Application Form where they would wish to be auditioned, bearing in mind that no expenses for attending auditions will be met by the Trustees. Those wishing to be auditioned in London must make it clear that they cannot attend Glasgow.

The Aims of the Trust

To provide scholarships for post graduate level students studying music away from their home town or for under graduate students of exceptional ability who also study music away from their home town.

Applicants, who may be of either sex, must be of Scottish nationality, i.e. either (a) having been born in Scotland or (b) if not born in Scotland having at least one parent or grandparent who was born in Scotland.

Administrative Note

Music Applications 2024/2025

You should have the Application Form for an Award in Music along with the explanatory Memorandum. If, after reading over the Memorandum you consider you are eligible to apply, you should complete the Application fully, sending it as soon as convenient along with relevant Birth Certificates (see below) for noting and returning. At the same time, you should enclose a letter (on A4 paper) setting out your aims and intentions. Also you should have 3 copies of the Referee Reports Forms so that you may pass these (or at least two of them) to your Referees for them to complete and forward to us.

Please note that the last date on which receipt of Applications will be accepted in this office is 31 January 2025. It is also your responsibility to ensure that your Referees' Reports are also sent in by this date in order that all relevant information is available to the Advisory Committee when considering your Application.

In view of the ever increasing cost of study, particularly abroad, you are advised, if you have not already done so, to make application for financial assistance to other sources in addition to the Caird Trust as it is unlikely that this Trust will be able to meet the whole of your expenses. Awards generally range from £500 to £3,500 per year.

Your attention is particularly drawn to the following points when completing the Application Form:-

1. Clearly state your full name, address and date of birth.
2. Clearly state your instrument e.g. voice (including vocal category), violin, piano, etc.
3. Unless you have applied to this Trust before, you must send your Birth Certificate. If you were not born in Scotland, then the Birth Certificate of your parent or grandparent who was born in Scotland must also be lodged along with any linking Marriage and other linking Birth Certificates. All such Certificates will be returned immediately they have been noted. Please note only original (i.e. not photocopy) Certificates will suffice for this purpose. For those not born in Scotland, as well as your relevant parent's Birth Certificate showing he/she was born in Scotland, please also note it is a full version of your own Birth Certificate which shows that relevant Scottish parent's details which is required to establish the Scotland link; an "abbreviated" Certificate without that parent's details will not suffice. The same applies to your parent's Birth Certificate if he/she was also not born in Scotland, and you are linking back to a grandparent.
4. You must state, as accurately as possible, the estimated cost of the Course which you propose following.

Kindly answer each and every question on the Application Form as fully as possible, as well as supplying the above information without fail, and so save unnecessary correspondence.

In recent years too many Applicants have delayed lodging Application Forms until the last few days. Please be early as LATE APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED.

You will be notified if you have been selected for interview by around 10 March.

N.B. Please double check that each of the foregoing points are fully answered in the Application Form and/or Letter and ensure that references and Birth Certificates (where appropriate) are with the Administrators by 31 January 2025, as failure to ensure this will result in an application being rejected.

1 Purposes Of Scholarships

By the Will of the late Mrs. Emma Grace Caird or Marryat, who was a sister of the late Sir James Caird Baronet of Dundee, a sum was appointed to be held in Trust for the foundation of Travelling Scholarships to be known as "Sir James Caird's Travelling Scholarships" in Music.

2 Eligibility

Applicants, who may be of either sex, must be of Scottish nationality, i.e. either (a) having been born in Scotland or (b) if not born in Scotland having at least one parent or grandparent who was born in Scotland.

3 Nature And Value Of Awards

Caird Scholarships are targeted generally at post graduate levels of study, or under graduate studies abroad for those of exceptional talent. The Scholarships are not intended to take the place of or supplement Scottish Education Department Students' Allowances or other awards derived from public funds which are designed to assist pupils of school-leaving age extend their studies at a Music Academy or College; nor are the Scholarships intended to supplement substantial awards from public or private sources.

Scholarships are only awarded to applicants who are travelling to a place of study away from their home town.

The amount to be awarded will be determined mainly in relation to the centre of study chosen and the nature of the work contemplated or the experience to be acquired. All relevant circumstances, including the financial position of the applicant, will be taken into consideration, particularly any other grants or awards obtained or earnings as a musician.

4 Tenure And Payment

Each Scholarship awarded will normally be tenable for one year, from 1 October, but may be renewed at the discretion of the Trustees for two further yearly periods, the maximum period during which a Scholarship may be held being three years. Each Scholar will be required to furnish the Trustees with periodical reports on his or her work, and these reports will be taken into account in considering applications for renewal of the Scholarships. Application Forms for renewal will be furnished by the Secretary on request.

Unless otherwise arranged, Scholarships will be paid, in two instalments, one-third in mid October, and two-thirds in mid January.

The Trustees reserve the right to suspend payment or to terminate the Scholarship at any time, if they are dissatisfied with the work or conduct of the scholar.

Scholars studying privately, rather than taking a course at a Music College, must provide receipts from their teachers as proof of attendance at such private lessons.

5 Conditions

Applicants must have received a good general education and must, in their application, give evidence of exceptional musical ability. Candidates may in addition be required to show a knowledge of the repertoire of their instruments and of standard composition in other fields of musical activity.

Those applicants who are chosen to appear before the Advisory Committee for Interview and Audition may be required to play or sing the whole or parts of up to three pieces of their own selection, contrasting in period and style, which should be within their capabilities, and should preferably be performed from memory. Composers must submit some of their recent compositions.

Failure to perform from memory may be taken into account by the Advisory Committee.

Composers and conductors will be expected to give evidence of their ability to read from any standard form of score for vocal, chamber or orchestral music.

Composers, if selected for audition, must submit their Compositions and/or Tape Recordings to the Committee per the Administrators at least ten days before the auditions.

All applicants should outline, as definitely as possible, in their applications the nature of the study they would like to undertake, should they be successful in obtaining a Scholarship. They should state where and with whom they wish to study.

ALL APPLICANTS SHOULD ARRANGE THEIR OWN ACCOMPANIST.

6 Discretionary Powers Of Trustees

The Trustees may, in their discretion, make no award of any or all of the Scholarships available.

7 Reports

Reports on the work undertaken by each Scholar will be called for in advance of the payment of each instalment of the grant.

8 Information And Applications

Further information can be obtained from the Administrators, who will also supply copies of the application forms. All applications must be submitted on the prescribed form and must be forwarded to Mr C Gardiner, Thorntons Law LLP., Whitehall House, 33 Yeaman Shore, Dundee, DD1 4BJ, the Administrators of the Trust. They must reach them by 31 January 2025 at latest. The instructions given on the form must be complied with and the information indicated must be supplied.

9 Interview And Audition

Applicants selected for interview will be asked to meet the Advisory Committee to audition. No travelling expenses will be paid by the Trust. The audition will be in either Glasgow or London as advised by the Administrators. Applications to undertake the Music Theatre Course at the Royal Academy of Music may be referred to the Principal of that Academy, who may be asked to nominate 2 applicants for audition by the Advisory Committee.

10 Representations To Members Of Advisory Committee

Members of the Advisory Committee cannot consider representations made to them personally on behalf of individual applicants, but only the documents submitted to them officially through the Administrators, to whom all communications must be addressed.

Scheme of Work - Guidelines
